Mom, Don't Make Me Think - Just Tell Me The Answer

As a teacher, it's so easy to give the answer, isn't it? Oh, that's right... you don't do that. How long do you allow a child to think before you start helping them? Sometimes we need to be quiet and let them wrestle with the problem to discover the answer. Do you know that children will learn better and remember things longer when they discover the solution? The goal is to provide a way for them to learn how to solve problems. How might you go about doing this?

Spiritual Warfare: Fighting for Your Family

Choosing to homeschool does not exempt us from spiritual warfare; instead it puts our families on the front line. With over 80% of evangelical Christian young people leaving their faith when they leave home, never to return, something is wrong in our tactics in fighting the enemy. Ignore an enemy and he will defeat you. Underestimate an enemy and he will defeat you. The good news is that we can live in victory! God gives us all the weapons and strategy we need to prepare our children for the spiritual battles to come. Trained as a military warrior, Chuck offers insight, training, and strategies for not only surviving the battle, but also advancing the kingdom through spiritual warfare.

Exploring Dual Enrollment and Alternative Credits

- Homeschool to College Focus

This workshop will discuss such questions as: What is dual enrollment? How do I prepare my student for college level learning? How do I know if my student is ready to dual enroll? What subjects are most values centered and influenced by secular thinking? How have rapid advancements in technology changed the face of education? Why do 16-18 year olds need a different educational approach from the adult learner? Emphasis will be on helping parents determine what path is best for their student.

Benham Brothers

Miracle in Shreveport

Miracle in Shreveport is an inspirational story of a family's love, the power of prayer, and a game that is truly all-American. It is also the story of brotherhood staying strong, despite the threat of comparison in a profession committed to competition. Most of all, it is the story of being faithful in small steps, honoring God in the process, and trusting His hand in our lives. In this session, the Benhams call us to remember that when we follow God's dream for us, we find it is better than we could have ever dreamed for ourselves.

Stop Trying to Do Too Much! Simplify What & How You're Teaching!

Homeschool families tend to bite off more than they can chew when it comes to curriculum choices. We fall in love with all the "shiny and fun" curriculum without coming up with a game plan for how to implement it all. Often times, we need to simplify what we are doing and even (gasp) ditch a little curriculum here and there. This practical workshop is filled with creative ideas on how to supplement what you are already doing and easily plan out a simpler homeschool year.
